January 16, 2007

Dear Chief Probation Officers and Non-Profit Community Based Organizations:

JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMUNITY REENTRY CHALLENGE (JJCRC) GRANT PROGRAM

I am pleased to announce the release of a Request for Proposals for the Juvenile Justice Community Reentry Challenge (JJCRC) Grant Program.

In order for prospective applicants to have ample time to plan to have their representative(s) attend, the Division of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) is hereby providing notice that it will be conducting two Applicant Briefing Workshops to familiarize prospective bidders with this grant opportunity.

One workshop will be held in Northern California and the other in Southern California; prospective bidders are encouraged to attend the more convenient of the two. The workshops will provide information about the Division of Juvenile Justice, the JJCRC Grant Program, the RFP, and the grant application process. Attendees will have the opportunity to ask questions and can be assured that the questions and DJJ's responses will be posted on DJJ's JJCRC website after the workshops.

The first Applicant Briefing Workshop will be held:

Wednesday, January 24, 2007 from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.
at the
Corrections Standards Authority Conference Room
660 Bercut Drive
Sacramento CA 95814

The second Applicant Briefing Workshop will be held:
Friday, January 26, 2007 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon
at the
Southern Region Parole Headquarters
741 Glenvia Street 1st Floor
Glendale, CA 91206

Non-profit and/or county agencies interested in attending a workshop are asked to complete the attached Applicant Briefing Workshop Registration Form and fax or email it to Program Manager Michael Cardiff by January 17, 2007. Michael Cardiff's email address is mike.cardiff@cocr.ca.gov; fax number is (916) 262-1362.

DJJ is prepared to work with interested agencies and organizations seeking to develop viable and effective proposals for the JJCRC Grant Program. We look forward to seeing you at an Applicant Briefing Workshop and to providing you with the information that will enable you to compete in this promising grant opportunity.

Cordially,
